

- 1 Look at the information about the two animals. Complete the sentences with one or two words.

Snow Leopard

- status: endangered
- weight: 59 - 99 lbs
- length: 30 - 52 in (not including tail)
- coat: gray or light brown, thick, spotted
- lives in: Asia

Barbary Lion

- status: extinct in the wild, less than 100 in captivity
- weight: males - 352 - 550 lbs, females - 220 - 374 lbs
- length: 109 - 214 in
- coat: golden brown
- lives in: used to live in northern Africa

- The weight of a female Barbary Lion can be about 330 lbs.
- There aren't many Snow Leopards left in the world, because they are endangered.
- Barbary Lions used to live in northern Africa.
- The length of a Snow Leopard can be between 30 - 52 in.
- Snow Leopards have a gray or light brown, thick, spotted coat.
- Barbary Lions only live in zoos now because they are extinct in the wild.
- Male Barbary lions can be 550 lbs.

2 Read and complete. Use How much, How many, How long.

- A: How much does the baby weigh?

B: 6 lbs.

A: Really? How many days are the mother and the baby going to stay in the hospital?

B: Until next week.
- A: How long is a giraffe's neck?

B: Well, it's about 9 feet long.
- A: How much sugar do you take in your coffee?

B: Only a little.

3 Read and match.

- We need three apples. ~~_____~~
 - That tiger has a long tail. ~~_____~~
 - This box is so heavy! ~~_____~~
 - She has really nice hair. ~~_____~~
 - This jacket was very cheap. ~~_____~~
- How much did you pay for it?
 - I know, how long do you think it is?
 - How many did you say we need?
 - How much does it weigh?
 - Yes, it's very long and curly.