Carla's flowers

Carla's new house had a yard. Carla didn't know much about gardening but she decided to try and plant a few flowers. She bought some seeds and put them in the soil. She watered them every day and waited for them to grow. The flowers grew, but Carla saw that they weren't as beautiful as the flowers in other yards in her neighborhood. They also had very few leaves. They were not very green. Carla called her mother who knew a lot about gardening.

Her mother said, "You should play some music to your plants." Carla laughed. "Music? Really?" "Yes. Especially rock music. Try it and you'll see," her mother said. Carla didn't believe it, but she did it.

After a few days, her flowers became more beautiful and the leaves were greener. Soon they were the best flowers in the neighborhood.
